

Feeling the spring-cleaning itch? Tidy up your home with these tips!

With warmer, sunnier days comes the annual tradition of spring cleaning, a time to freshen up your home inside and out. Getting rid of the extra clutter and dirt that accumulated throughout the winter can make you feel bright and ready for relaxing during long summer days. Here are a few tips on how to have a successful and refreshing spring clean this season.

For more information, visit www.otipinsurance.com/article70.

